Lifting Solutions Group
Axel Johnson International

Crane system LIGHTster

Product information

General: Aluminum lightweight crane system with a high load-bearing capacity and low running costs. For loads up to 2000 kg. Low own-weight, high quality and precise application.

- Easy installation thanks to a simple connection system with a low own-weight
- Flexible and individually adjustable lightweight crane system
- Gentle lifting and position of loads, manually or with variable electric speed control
- Wide range of profiles available
- Wide range of power supply modes available
- A wide range of spans can be realized
- Compact solutions available for varoius headrooms
- We also provide customized equipment to suit your individual needs
- Highest quality standard and minimum production tolerances
- Low noise level
- Various installation options with numerious suspension types
- Easy to modify/ or extend
- Prolonged service life combined with low maintainence costs
- Available at a competative price topped with low running cost

... Read more

© November 2026 - All Rights Reserved